DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What keeps you from being able to see God the way Isaiah did in Isaiah 6:1-3?
2. In what ways do you best connect with God? How can you leverage those ways to build in daily times of experiencing God's presence?
3. Have you ever felt like you're too far gone...that there are parts of your life that are so broken that even God couldn't make them right again?
4. Read Isaiah 65:1. Have you ever considered the fact that God has already said to you, "Here I am?" What hope do you find in this?
5. Pastor Sam said that the point is not the thing that God may ask you to do...the point is who's asking. You're not saying "here I am" to a request; You're saying "here I am" to the God of the universe. What is the difference between the two? How does this change the way you think about your response to God?
6. Read Luke 9:23. Have you ever considered the following: "We get to decide whether or not to follow Jesus. We do not get to decide what following Jesus looks like?" When is it the most difficult for you to follow Jesus?
7. How can you take a step towards trusting God a little more this week?
