

PART 3: JOY IN THE GENEROSITY JOURNEY

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Evaluate what you think about, worry about, and care about. Do you have more of a lacking mindset or an abounding mindset?
2. What is something you own that you have trusted somebody else to manage (this could be a business, a car you allow your child to drive, a tool you loan out, etc.)? What expectations did you have for the one managing what you own?
3. Pastor Will shared three ways we can relate to our money and possessions—"It's all from me and for me," "the first belongs to God," and "I'm a living sacrifice." Where do you see yourself in this journey?
4. The three ways of relating to money aren't three steps; they're made up of thousands of little steps. What's a next step you can take toward becoming a living sacrifice?
5. Read Luke 9:23-25. What do you think it means to save your life by losing it? And how does this verse relate to becoming generous?
6. Read Matthew 6:21. Pastor Will taught that where your treasure is, is where your heart will be, and where your heart is determines who you will become. Who are you becoming? Who do you want to become?

Application Prayer: Heavenly Father, today I am cheerfully deciding to become a generous giver. I want you to have first place in my finances, because I want you to have first place in all of my life.
